Article I. NAME

This Church shall be known as Amelia Christian Church, Inc.

Article II. VISION

Love God, Love Others, Be a Family

Article III. MISSION STATEMENT

To grow a legacy of disciples in the communities God places us.

Effective 10/25/2020

Article IV. CORE VALUES

Ask God: Whenever we have a decision, we first seek guidance from God through prayer, the Bible, and wise counsel.

- Psalm 119:105, “Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path.”
- 1 Chronicles 10:14, “And (Saul) did not seek guidance from the Lord. Therefore, the Lord put him to death and turned his kingdom over to David son of Jesse.
- Proverbs 15:22, “Without counsel, plans go wrong, but with many advisers they succeed.”

Missionaries: We use the gifts God gives us to serve His kingdom. We choose to contribute instead of consume.

- Romans 12:4-5, “For as in one body we have many members, and not all the members have the same function, so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually we are members one of another.
- 1 Peter 4:10, “Like good stewards of the manifold grace of God, serve one another with whatever gift each of you has received.”

Evolving: We are always learning and growing to reach our community.

- Matthew 10:16, “See, I am sending you out like sheep into the midst of wolves; so be wise as serpents and innocent as doves.”

Loving: We are all a part of one family.

- Acts 2: 41-42;44-47, "So those who welcomed his message were baptized, and that day about three thousand persons were added. They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers. All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their possessions and goods and distribute the proceeds to all, as any had need. Day by day, as they spent much time together in the temple, they broke bread at home and ate their food with glad and generous hearts, praising God and having the goodwill of all the people. And day by day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.

- John 13:34, “I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another.”

Intentional: We are intentional about using our limited energy for the most productive things.

- Ephesians 5:15-17, “Be careful then how you live, not as unwise people but as wise, making the most of the time, because the days are evil. Do not be foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is.”
- Proverbs 21:5, “The plans of the diligent lead surely to abundance, but everyone who is hasty comes only to want.”

Assisting: We serve our community with irrational generosity.

- James 1:27, “Religion that is pure and undefiled before God, the Father, is this: to care for orphans and widows in their distress, and to keep oneself unstained by the world.”
- Mark 10:44-45, “And whoever wishes to be first among you must be slave of all. For the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many.”

Article V. DOCTRINE

We Believe:

- In one God – Father, Son and Holy Spirit.
- In Jesus Christ as our personal Savior and only head of the Church.
- The Bible is the ultimate rule of faith and practice.
- Acting in love, God is ever active in the world.
- All Christians are brothers and sisters in Christ, and must help each other.
- God sent the Holy Spirit as the Eternal One’s continuing presence and activity in the world.
- The church consists of a group of people united in Christ through worship, work and witness.
- Forgiveness, grace and eternal life are promised to all who have faith in Jesus Christ.
- We must each be disciples, in word and in deed – the strength of our faith.
- The mission of the church is to evangelize and establish God’s rule in the world.
- In the right and privilege of individual interpretations of Christian faith and practice.

Article VI. STATEMENT OF FAITH

- We believe the Bible consisting of the Old and New Testament, to be the only inspired, inerrant, infallible, authoritative Word of God written.
- We believe that there is one God, eternally existent in three persons: Father, Son and Holy Ghost.

- We believe in the deity of Christ, in His virgin birth, in His sinless life, in His miracles, in His vicarious and atoning death through His shed blood, in His bodily resurrection, in His ascension to the right hand of the Father, and in His personal return in power and glory.
- We believe that for salvation of lost and sinful man regeneration by the Holy Spirit is absolutely essential.
- We believe in the present ministry of the Holy Spirit by Whose indwelling power and fullness the Christian is enabled to live a godly life in this present evil world.
- We believe in the resurrection of both the saved and the lost; they that are saved unto the resurrection of life and they that are lost unto the resurrection of damnation.
- We believe in the spiritual unity of all believers of Christ.

Article VII. GOVERNMENT

The government of this Church is vested in its members who exercise the rights of full and final control in all its affairs, while, at the same time, the Church recognizes itself as part of the National Association of Congregational Christian Churches (NACCC), and pledges itself to share their common aims and work.

- 3.5. Place of Meetings. The Board of Directors may designate any place, either within or without the State of North Carolina, as the place of meeting for any annual meeting or for any special meeting called by the Board of Directors. If no designation is made or if a special meeting be otherwise called, the place of meeting shall be the principal office of the Corporation in the State of North Carolina; but if all of the members shall meet at any time and place either within or without the State of North Carolina, and consent to the holding of a meeting, such meetings shall be valid without call or notice, and at such meeting any corporate action may be taken.
- 3.6. Quorum. Twenty-five (25) members shall constitute a quorum at such meeting. If a quorum is not present at any meeting of members, a majority of the members present may adjourn the meeting from time to time without further notice.

ARTICLE IV

Board of Directors

- 4.1. General Powers. The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by its Board of Directors, which shall also be defined as the Board of Elders. Except as otherwise expressly provided by law, the Articles of Incorporation, or these Bylaws, all of the power of the Corporation shall be vested in the Board of Directors.

- 4.2. Number, Term, and Qualifications. The number of directors constituting the Board of Directors shall be 5 (five). Each director shall hold office until his death, resignation, retirement or removal, disqualification, or his successor shall have been elected and qualified. Directors shall be members of the Church.
- 4.3. Election of Directors. Directors shall be elected at any annual or special meeting of the church by a vote of a majority of the church members. The election of directors shall be a part of the order of business at each annual meeting of the church. Each director elected shall hold office until his successor is elected and qualifies.
- 4.4. Removal. Directors may be removed from office at any time with or without cause by the church by such vote as would be required to elect a member of the Board of Directors.
- 4.5. Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors may be filled by the affirmative vote of a quarter of the church members at any annual or special meeting of the church. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his predecessor in office.
- 4.6. Chairman of the Board. There shall be a Chair and Vice-Chair of the Board of Directors elected by the directors from their number at any meeting of the Board of Directors. The Chair, or in his absence the Vice-Chair, shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors, and each shall perform such other duties as may be directed by the Board of Directors. The Chair and vice-Chair shall be officers of the Corporation.

ARTICLE V

Meeting of Directors

- 5.1. Annual Meetings. The annual meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held on the first Saturday in January of each year, for the purpose of electing directors and officers of the Corporation and for the transaction of any other business properly before the Board of Directors. If the day fixed for the annual meeting shall be a legal holiday, the meeting shall be held on the next succeeding business day that is not a legal holiday. If the annual meeting shall not be held on the day designated by these Bylaws, a substitute annual meeting may be called by, or at the request of, the Board of Directors and such meeting shall be designated and treated for all purposes as the annual meeting.
- 5.2. Special Meeting. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by, or at the request of, the Chair or any two directors.

- 5.3. Place of meetings. The annual or any special meeting of the Board of Directors may be held at the principal office of the Corporation or at such other place, either within or without the State of North Carolina, as shall be designated in the notice of the meeting or in a waiver of notice of the meeting signed by all the Directors then in office.
- 5.4. Notice of Meetings. The Secretary of the Board of Elders shall give notice of each annual meeting of the Board of Directors by providing such notice to each director at least ten days before the meeting. The Chairman or other persons calling a special meeting of the Board of Directors shall give notice thereof (or cause the Secretary to give notice) by providing such notice to each director at least three days before the meeting. Unless otherwise indicated in the notice thereof, any and all business may be transacted at a meeting of the Board of Directors, except as otherwise provided by law or these Bylaws.
- 5.5. Waiver of Notice. Any director may waive notice of any meeting, either before or after the meeting. Written waivers of notice shall be filed by the Secretary with the corporate records or as part of the minutes of the meeting. The attendance by a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver or notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.
- 5.6. Quorum. A majority of the number of directors in office shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Board of Directors.
- 5.7. Manner of Acting. Except as otherwise provided in these Bylaws, the act of the majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE VI

Committees

- 6.1. Committees of Directors. The Board of Directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the directors in office, may designate and appoint one or more committees, each of which shall consist of and appoint one or more committees, each of which shall consist of two or more directors, which committees, to the extent provided in said resolution, shall have and exercise the authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the Corporation; provided, however, that no such committee shall have the authority of the Board of Directors in reference to adopting, amending, or repealing the Bylaws; electing, appointing, removing, or filling the vacancy on such committee or any board or office of the Corporation; adopting, amending, or repealing the Articles of Incorporation; adopting a plan of merger or adopting a plan of consolidation with another Corporation; authorizing the sale, lease exchange or mortgage of all or substantially all of the property and assets of the Corporation; authorizing the voluntary dissolution of the Corporation or revoking proceedings therefore; adopting a plan for the distribution of the assets of the Corporation; authorizing any distributions by the Corporation; or amending, altering, or repealing any resolution of the Board of Directors which by its terms provides that it shall not be amended, altered, or repealed by such committee. The designation and appointment of any such committee and the delegation thereto of authority shall not operate to relive the Board of Directors, or any individual director, of any responsibility imposed upon it or him by law.

- 6.2. Other Committees. Other committees not having and exercising the authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the Corporation may be designated by a resolution adopted by a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present. Except as otherwise provide din such resolution, members of each such committee shall be members of the Corporation, and the Chair of the Corporation shall appoint the member thereof. Any member thereof may be removed by the person or persons authorized to appoint such member whenever in their judgment the best interests of the Corporation shall be served by such removal.
- 6.3. Term of Office. Each member of a committee shall continue as such until the next annual meeting of the directors of the Corporation and until his/her successor is appointed, unless the committee shall be sooner terminated, or unless such member shall cease to qualify as a member thereof.
- 6.4. Chair. One member of each committee shall be appointed chair by the person or persons authorized to appoint the members thereof.
- 6.5. Vacancies. Vacancies in the membership of any committee may be filled by appointments made in the same manner as proved in the case of the original appointments.
- 6.6. Quorum. Unless otherwise provided in the resolution of the Board of Directors designating a committee, a majority of the whole committee shall constitute a quorum and the act of a majority of the members present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the committee.
- 6.7. Rules. Each committee may adopt rules for its own government not inconsistent with these Bylaws or with rules adopted by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE VII

Officers

7.1. Officers of the Corporation. The officers of the Corporation shall consist of a Chair/President which shall be the Chair of the Board of Elders; a Vice-Chair which shall be the Vice-Chair of the Board of Elders; a Secretary which shall be the Secretary of the Board of Elders; and a Treasurer which shall be the Church Treasurer. Other officers, including one or more Vice-Presidents (whose seniority and titled, including Executive Vice-Presidents and Senior Vice-Presidents, may be specified by the Board of Directors), Assistant Secretaries, and Assistant Treasurers, may from time to time be elected by the Board of Directors. Any two or more offices, except President and Secretary, may be held by the same person. No officer may act in more than one capacity were the actions of two or more officers are required.

7.1.1. For purposed of definition for Amelia Christian Church, officers are defined as Chair, Vice-Chair, Secretary and Treasurer.

7.2. Election and Term. The officers of the Corporation shall be nominated by the Board of Directors and confirmed by majority vote of the church membership at any annual or special meeting of the church, and each officer shall hold office until expiration of term, death, resignation, retirement, removal or disqualification.

7.3. Removal. An officer or agent elected or appointed by the Board of Directors may be removed by majority vote of the Church membership whenever in its judgment the best interests of the Corporation will be served thereby.

7.4. President. The President shall the chief executive office of the Corporation and shall be primarily responsible for the implementation of policies of the Board of Directors. He shall have authority over the general management of the Corporation in accordance with these Bylaws, subject only to the ultimate authority of the Board of Directors. He may sign and execute instruments in the name of the Corporation except in cases where the signing and the execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board of Directors or by these Bylaws to some other officer or agent of the Corporation or shall be required by law otherwise to be signed or executed. In addition, he shall perform all duties incident to the office of the President and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors.

7.5. Vice-Presidents. Each Vice-President, if any, shall have such powers and duties as may from time to time be assigned to him by the Board of Directors. Any Vice-President may sign and execute in the name of the Corporation instruments authorized by the Board of Directors, except where the signing and execution of such documents shall be expressly delegated by the Board of Directors or the President to some other officer or agent of the Corporation or shall be required by law otherwise to be signed or executed. In the absence of the President or in the event of his death, inability, or refusal to act, the Vice-Presidents in the order of their length of service as Vice-Presidents, unless otherwise determined by the Board of Directors, shall perform the duties of the President, and when so acting shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the President.

- 7.6. Secretary. The Secretary shall keep the minutes of the meetings of the Board of Directors. He shall keep all minutes of all such meeting in books designated for those purposes. The Secretary shall see that all notices are fully given in accordance with the provisions of these Bylaws or as required by law. He shall have charge of the books, records and papers of the Corporation. He shall have custody of the seal of the Corporation and see that the seal of the Corporation is affixed to all documents the execution of which on behalf of the Corporation under its seal is duly authorized and shall sign such instruments as may require his signature. He shall in general perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to him by the Chairman, by the Board of Directors, or by these Bylaws.
- 7.7. Assistant Secretaries. In the absence of the Secretary or in the event of his death, inability, or refusal to act, an Assistant Secretary designated by the Chairman, unless otherwise determined by the Board of Directors, shall perform the duties of the Secretary and when so acting shall have all the powers of and by subject to all restrictions upon the Secretary. The Assistant Secretaries shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to them by the Secretary, by the Chairman, or by the Board of Directors. Any Assistant Secretary may sign, with the President or a Vice-President, documents authorized to be signed by the Secretary.
- 7.8. Validity of Signatures. In case any person whose signature shall appear on any bond, note or other evidence of indebtedness of the Corporation shall cease to be an officer or hold an office different from that held at the time of signature before the delivery of such instrument, such signature shall nevertheless be valid and sufficient for all purposes the same as if he had remained in such office until such delivery.

ARTICLE VIII

Indebtedness

No indebtedness of the Corporation shall be incurred except as may be approved by resolution adopted by a majority of the membership of the church at any annual or special meeting of the church.

Any or all of such indebtedness may be represented by notes, debentures, bonds, or other securities, either unsecured or secured by, or issued under, a mortgage, trust indenture, or otherwise and may be issued at such times and upon such terms as the membership of the Church shall determine.

ARTICLE IX

Contracts, Loans, Checks and Deposits

- 9.1. Contracts. The Board of Directors may authorize any officer or officers, agent or agents, to enter into any contract or execute and deliver any instrument in the name of and on behalf of the Corporation, and such authority may be general or confirmed to specific instances.
- 9.2. Loans. No loans shall be contracted on behalf of the Corporation and no evidences of indebtedness shall be issued in its name unless authorized by a resolution of the Board of Directors. Such authority may be general or confined to specific instances. The resolution shall delegate and authorize the President and any other necessary corporate office to execute documents.
- 9.3. Checks, Drafts, Etc. All checks, drafts, or other orders for the payment of money, notes or other evidences of indebtedness issued in the name of the Corporation, shall be signed by such officer or officers, agent or agents of the Corporation and in such manner as shall from time to time be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors.
- 9.4. Deposits. All funds of the Corporation not otherwise employed shall be deposited from time to time to the credit of the Corporation in such banks, trust companies or other depositories as the Board of Directors may select.

ARTICLE X

Certificates of Membership and Their Transfer

The Board of Directors may provide for the issuance of certificates evidencing membership in the Corporation, which shall be in such form as may be determined by the Board of Directors. Such certificates shall be signed by the Chair or Vice-Chair and by the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary and shall be sealed with the seal of the Corporation. All certificates evidencing membership of any class shall be consecutively numbered. The name and address of each member and the date of issuance of the certificate shall be entered on the records of the Corporation. If any certificate shall become lost, mutilated, or destroyed, a new certificate may be issued therefore upon such terms and conditions as the Board of Directors may determine.

ARTICLE XI

General Provisions

- 11.1. Seal. The corporate seal of the Corporation shall contain the name of the Corporation and shall be in such form as approved by the Board of Directors.
- 11.2. Waiver of Notice. Whenever any notice is required to be given to any director by law, by the Articles of Incorporation, or by these Bylaws, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the director or directors entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice.

- 11.3. Indemnification. The Corporation shall indemnify its officers and directors to the maximum extent required or permitted by Part 5 of Article 8 of chapter 55A of the General Statutes of North Carolina as from time to time amended, and such officers and directors shall be deemed to have relied upon this Part.
- 11.4. Fiscal year. The fiscal year of the Corporation shall be as fixed by the Board of Directors.
- 11.5. Amendment of Bylaws. Except as otherwise provided by law, by the Articles of Incorporation or herein, these Bylaws may be amended or repealed and new Bylaws may be adopted by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then holding office at any annual or special meeting of the membership; provided, however that notice of the proposed action shall have been included in the notice of the meeting or shall have been waived as provided in these Bylaws.
